► Photographer to sell protesters' portraits for $200 each ► But protesters pictured had no idea

Occupy Wall Street's gallery debut is today. Except the protesters say they have had no part in it.

Fort Greene photographer Andrew Piccone's show "Faces of Occupy Wall Street" opens at the Frontrunner gallery in TriBeCa tonight. There, he hopes to sell the portraits of some 26 protesters for $200 a print.

Piccone, 24, admits he hasn't spoken to a single one of his subjects.

"I didn't interact with them or tell them what I was going to do with the photos," Piccone said. "I liked my role as a voyeur."

Some Occupiers say they feel violated. Eric Carter, 30, from New Orleans, called Piccone's exhibit "disingenuous."

"All the energy in this park is against being commodified," said Carter. "He's just missing the point."

Protesters told Metro that they understand they are occupying a public park, but wish Piccone would have been more transparent about his intentions when he snapped their photos.

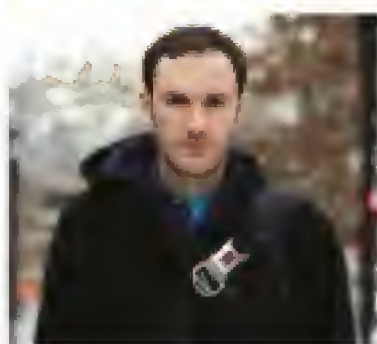

"I don't think it's morally right," Camille Raneem, 21, a Hunter student, said.

Raneem said she's been photographed hundreds of times since the occupation began and finds the barrage of cameras "harassing."

"They photograph you while you're waking up," she said. "You feel like an animal in a zoo."

Piccone's say

Piccone says that he doesn't identify with the Occupy protesters.

- "I would not consider myself a participant in the protest," he said to Metro. "There are certain things I agree with, and certain things I might not."
- "Faces of Occupy Wall Street" is the budding photographer's first show.
- When told of protesters' fury over his exhibit, Piccone said he now plans to donate "a portion of the profits" to the Occupy Wall Street movement.

BROOKLYN. City Councilman Charles Barron considers deposed Libyan dictator Muammar Gaddafi a hero, telling the Daily News "One person's horrible per-

Landlord called out on Twitter

► Jakobson renters take to Twitter, Tumblr to air landlord woes ► Tales of disrepair rampant online

Forget the streets — angry tenants are now taking to the tweets.

A group of renters has decided to speak out against their landlord, Jakobson Properties, creating a Twitter handle and Tumblr account to cull accounts of what they say is neglect in their buildings.

"We kept complaining about things and never saw any results," said John, the East Village resident who created @Jakobson_Fix_It on Nov. 7. He lives in a Jakobson-owned building and didn't want to give his last name out of fear of repercussion. "We want to hold Jakobson tumblr.

'Net noise

Anonymous residents had the following to say about Jakobson:

► "During the snow storm the 'roof leaked' into my apartment. I called maintenance and this guy came and gave me PAPER TOWELS and PLASTIC WRAP." ► "If it weren't bad enough that they hadn't repainted before I moved in, they didn't bother to remove the former tenant before I moved in!"

accountable."

Jakobson Properties, which owns and manages roughly 50 buildings across the boroughs, is a cheap, popular landlord for students in the East Village.

"The stories are pretty wild," said Holly Alexander, the social media consultant for Jakobson. "We've been trying to respond ... to make it very clear that we want to hear this."

But John says there's still more to be done.

"We need to build communities that keep landlords in check," he said.

Audit: MTA overpaying for overtime

A unit of the MTA's Metro-North railroad abused overtime rules to inflate compensation by almost $1 million and future pension payments by $5.5 million, an audit by New York state Comptroller Thomas DiNapoli showed.

Supervisors for the signal construction unit, which worked on Metro-North's Hudson and Harlem lines, assigned employees to nighttime duty even though they had day shifts, the audit found. The switch then triggered a federal requirement that the workers rest while earning full pay during their regular shift the next day.

Of the unit's 30 work-

$1.5M

One worker increased his projected pension by $1.5 million, DiNapoli said in an e-mailed statement.

ers, 28 were found to be involved in the shift manipulation, costing the MTA $991,208 in additional overtime payments, the audit said.

Metro-North vowed to renegotiate with labor to change the way the agency schedules daytime versus overnight shifts, said an MTA spokeswoman.

National Diabetes Month is a great time to take control.

If you have TYPE 2 DIABETES, take steps to help control your blood sugar.

Pay as little as $5*
For up to 12 prescriptions.
Eligibility restrictions and terms apply.

Talk to your doctor about lowering blood sugar levels. Talk to your doctor about JANUVIA.

Decreases
Sugar Made
In Liver

- JANUVIA is a once-daily prescription pill that helps your body increase the insulin made in your pancreas and decrease the sugar made in your liver.
- Along with diet and exercise, JANUVIA helps lower blood sugar levels in adults with type 2 diabetes.
- JANUVIA is not likely to cause weight gain or low blood sugar (hypoglycemia).

JANUVIA (jah-NEW-vee-ah) should not be used in patients with type 1 diabetes or with diabetic ketoacidosis (increased ketones in the blood or urine). If you have had pancreatitis (inflammation of the pancreas), it is not known if you have a higher chance of getting it while taking JANUVIA.

Selected Risk Information About JANUVIA: Serious side effects can happen in people who take JANUVIA, including pancreatitis, which may be severe and lead to death. Before you start taking JANUVIA, tell your doctor if you've ever had pancreatitis. Stop taking JANUVIA and call your doctor right away if you have pain in your stomach area (abdomen) that is severe and will not go away. The pain may be felt going from your abdomen through to your back. The pain may happen with or without vomiting. These may be symptoms of pancreatitis.

Do not take JANUVIA if you are allergic to any of its ingredients, including sitagliptin. Symptoms of serious allergic reactions to JANUVIA, including rash, hives, and swelling of the face, lips, tongue, and throat that may cause difficulty breathing or swallowing, can occur. If you have any symptoms of a serious allergic reaction, stop taking JANUVIA and call your doctor right away.

Kidney problems, sometimes requiring dialysis, have been reported.

If you take JANUVIA with another medicine that can cause low blood sugar (hypoglycemia), such as a sulfonylurea or insulin, your risk of getting low blood sugar is higher. The dose of your sulfonylurea medicine or insulin may need to be lowered while you use JANUVIA. Signs and symptoms of low blood sugar may include headache, drowsiness, weakness, dizziness, confusion, irritability, hunger, fast heart beat, sweating, and feeling jittery.

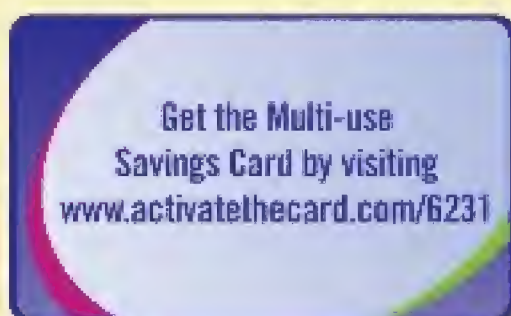

Your doctor may do blood tests before and during treatment with JANUVIA to see how well your kidneys are working. Based on these results, your doctor may change your dose of JANUVIA. The most common side effects of JANUVIA are upper respiratory tract infection, stuffy or runny nose and sore throat, and headache.

Call 1-888-JANUVIA or visit Januvia.com.

Now you can get JANUVIA for as little as $5 per prescription.*

*Eligible patients may pay as little as $5 out of pocket on each of up to 12 qualifying prescriptions. Maximum savings is $100 per prescription.

Januvia[®]
(sitagliptin) tablets

- If your doctor thinks that JANUVIA is right for you, he or she will write a prescription for JANUVIA.
- Activate and print your Multi-use Savings Card by visiting www.activatethecard.com/6231.
- Take the prescription and the Multi-use Savings Card to a participating eligible retail or mail-order pharmacy (certain restrictions apply).

THIS IS NOT A MULTI-USE SAVINGS CARD. The card is not insurance. Eligibility Restrictions Apply. The card is valid for patients with private insurance or cash-paying patients. Not valid for patients covered under Medicaid, Medicare, a Medicare Part D or Medicare Advantage plan (regardless of whether a specific prescription is covered), TRICARE, CHAMPUS, Puerto Rico Government Health Insurance Plan ("Healthcare Reform"), or any other state or federal medical or pharmaceutical benefit program or pharmaceutical assistance program. The card is void for Massachusetts residents if a third-party payer reimburses or pays any amount of the prescription price or otherwise provides coverage for JANUVIA. The card can be used only by eligible United States or Commonwealth of Puerto Rico residents at any participating eligible retail or mail-order pharmacy in the United States or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Product must originate in the United States or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. The offer is subject to certain Terms and Conditions. See full Terms and Conditions on the Multi-use Savings Card.

Only your health care provider can decide if JANUVIA is right for you.

Medication Guide

JANUVIA® (jah-NEW-vee-ah) (sitagliptin) Tablets

Read this Medication Guide carefully before you start taking JANUVIA and each time you get a refill. There may be new information. This information does not take the place of talking with your doctor about your medical condition or your treatment. If you have any questions about JANUVIA, ask your doctor or pharmacist.

What is the most important information I should know about JANUVIA?

Serious side effects can happen in people taking JANUVIA, including inflammation of the pancreas (pancreatitis) which may be severe and lead to death.

Certain medical problems make you more likely to get pancreatitis.

Before you start taking JANUVIA:

Tell your doctor if you have ever had

- pancreatitis
- stones in your gallbladder (gallstones)
- a history of alcoholism
- high blood triglyceride levels
- kidney problems

Stop taking JANUVIA and call your doctor right away if you have pain in your stomach area (abdomen) that is severe and will not go away. The pain may be felt going from your abdomen through to your back. The pain may happen with or without vomiting. These may be symptoms of pancreatitis.

What is JANUVIA?

- JANUVIA is a prescription medicine used along with diet and exercise to lower blood sugar in adults with type 2 diabetes.
- JANUVIA is not for people with type 1 diabetes.
- JANUVIA is not for people with diabetic ketoacidosis (increased ketones in your blood or urine).
- If you have had pancreatitis (inflammation of the pancreas) in the past, it is not known if you have a higher chance of getting pancreatitis while you take JANUVIA.
- It is not known if JANUVIA is safe and effective when used in children under 18 years of age.

Who should not take JANUVIA?

Do not take JANUVIA if:

- you are allergic to any of the ingredients in JANUVIA. See the end of this Medication Guide for a complete list of ingredients in JANUVIA.

Symptoms of a serious allergic reaction to JANUVIA may include:

- rash
- raised red patches on your skin (hives)
- swelling of the face, lips, tongue, and throat that may cause difficulty in breathing or swallowing

What should I tell my doctor before taking JANUVIA?

Before you take JANUVIA, tell your doctor if you:

- have or have had inflammation of your pancreas (pancreatitis).
- have kidney problems.
- have any other medical conditions.
- are pregnant or plan to become pregnant. It is not known if JANUVIA will harm your unborn baby. If you are pregnant, talk with your doctor about the best way to control your blood sugar while you are pregnant.
Pregnancy Registry: If you take JANUVIA at any time during your pregnancy, talk with your doctor about how you can join the JANUVIA pregnancy registry. The purpose of this registry is to collect information about the health of you and your baby. You can enroll in this registry by calling 1-800-986-8999.
- are breast-feeding or plan to breast-feed. It is not known if JANUVIA will pass into your breast milk. Talk with your doctor about the best way to feed your baby if you are taking JANUVIA.

Tell your doctor about all the medicines you take, including prescription and non-prescription medicines, vitamins, and herbal supplements.

Know the medicines you take. Keep a list of your medicines and show it to your doctor and pharmacist when you get a new medicine.

How should I take JANUVIA?

- Take JANUVIA 1 time each day exactly as your doctor tells you.
- You can take JANUVIA with or without food.
- Your doctor may do blood tests from time to time to see how well your kidneys are working. Your doctor may change your dose of JANUVIA based on the results of your blood tests.
- Your doctor may tell you to take JANUVIA along with other diabetes medicines. Low blood sugar can happen more often when JANUVIA is taken with certain other diabetes medicines. See “What are the possible side effects of JANUVIA?”.
- If you miss a dose, take it as soon as you remember. If you do not remember until it is time for your next dose, skip the missed dose and go back to your regular schedule. Do not take two doses of JANUVIA at the same time.
- If you take too much JANUVIA, call your doctor or local Poison Control Center right away.
- When your body is under some types of stress, such as fever, trauma (such as a car accident), infection or surgery, the amount of diabetes medicine that you need may change. Tell your doctor right away if you have any of these conditions and follow your doctor's instructions.
- Check your blood sugar as your doctor tells you to.

- Stay on your prescribed diet and exercise program while taking JANUVIA.
- Talk to your doctor about how to prevent, recognize and manage low blood sugar (hypoglycemia), high blood sugar (hyperglycemia), and problems you have because of your diabetes.
- Your doctor will check your diabetes with regular blood tests, including your blood sugar levels and your hemoglobin A1C.

What are the possible side effects of JANUVIA?

Serious side effects have happened in people taking JANUVIA.

- See “What is the most important information I should know about JANUVIA?”.
- Low blood sugar (hypoglycemia). If you take JANUVIA with another medicine that can cause low blood sugar, such as a sulfonylurea or insulin, your risk of getting low blood sugar is higher. The dose of your sulfonylurea medicine or insulin may need to be lowered while you use JANUVIA. Signs and symptoms of low blood sugar may include:

• headache	• irritability
• drowsiness	• hunger
• weakness	• fast heart beat
• dizziness	• sweating
• confusion	• feeling jittery

- Serious allergic reactions. If you have any symptoms of a serious allergic reaction, stop taking JANUVIA and call your doctor right away. See “Who should not take JANUVIA?”. Your doctor may give you a medicine for your allergic reaction and prescribe a different medicine for your diabetes.

- Kidney problems, sometimes requiring dialysis

The most common side effects of JANUVIA include:

- upper respiratory infection
- stuffy or runny nose and sore throat
- headache

JANUVIA may have other side effects, including:

- stomach upset and diarrhea
- swelling of the hands or legs, when JANUVIA is used with rosiglitazone (Avandia®). Rosiglitazone is another type of diabetes medicine.

These are not all the possible side effects of JANUVIA. For more information, ask your doctor or pharmacist.

Tell your doctor if you have any side effect that bothers you, is unusual or does not go away.

Call your doctor for medical advice about side effects. You may report side effects to FDA at 1-800-FDA-1088.

How should I store JANUVIA?

Store JANUVIA at 68°F to 77°F (20°C to 25°C).

Keep JANUVIA and all medicines out of the reach of children.

General information about the use of JANUVIA

Medicines are sometimes prescribed for purposes that are not listed in Medication Guides. Do not use JANUVIA for a condition for which it was not prescribed. Do not give JANUVIA to other people, even if they have the same symptoms you have. It may harm them.

This Medication Guide summarizes the most important information about JANUVIA. If you would like to know more information, talk with your doctor. You can ask your doctor or pharmacist for additional information about JANUVIA that is written for health professionals. For more information, go to www.JANUVIA.com or call 1-800-622-4477.

What are the ingredients in JANUVIA?

Active ingredient: sitagliptin.

Inactive ingredients: microcrystalline cellulose, anhydrous dibasic calcium phosphate, croscarmellose sodium, magnesium stearate, and sodium stearyl fumarate. The tablet film coating contains the following inactive ingredients: polyvinyl alcohol, polyethylene glycol, talc, titanium dioxide, red iron oxide, and yellow iron oxide.

What is type 2 diabetes?

Type 2 diabetes is a condition in which your body does not make enough insulin, and the insulin that your body produces does not work as well as it should. Your body can also make too much sugar. When this happens, sugar (glucose) builds up in the blood. This can lead to serious medical problems.

High blood sugar can be lowered by diet and exercise, and by certain medicines when necessary.

Online petition seeks to get shelter employee job back

Thousands have signed an online petition urging the city's Animal Care and Control to rehire an employee who said she was fired for taking photos of the critters under AC&C's care.

Supporters of Emily Tanen say she was fired for taking photos of people with the animals and posting them online. People photographed with pets is against shelter rules, Tanen told The New York Times, since viewers might incorrectly assume the animal already has an owner.

Tanen told the Times that she was fired in May. But she says she only post-

Tanen also told CBS that she was fired after she said the East Harlem shelter was too quick to euthanize animals.

A spokesman for Animal

Care and Control told Metro they do not comment on personnel matters.

"The beautiful, clear pictures she took of dogs with volunteers have led many to be adopted," the petition stated.

Tanen said her photos made the animals appear more adoptable, compared to the grainy images the shelter used.

"I think they just didn't want photos of animals they were about to kill looking cute," Tanen told the Times.

New look for Grand Army Plaza

BROOKLYN. New York City Department of Transportation Commissioner Janette Sadik-Kahn was on hand yesterday to open the recently redesigned Grand Army Plaza in Brooklyn. The roundabout now has new pedestrian islands, crosswalks and another traffic signal thanks to the $1.5 million renovation project.

The weekly Greenmarket at Grand Army Plaza, which is Brooklyn's largest, will also have more space in the new redesign and the landmark Soldiers' and Sailors' Arch is now accessible through a wider crosswalk. Countdown signals will be added to Flatbush Avenue and Eastern Parkway. ● METRO/AB

Toddler shot in the Bronx

BRONX. A 4-year-old was shot in the chest during a robbery in the Bronx on Tuesday. According to cops, the child was standing with his father outside their building when two men tried to rob them, firing bullets that hit the toddler. Cops are investigating whether the father then chased down and shot at least one of the robbers. The boy is reportedly in critical condition. ● METRO/AB

Paterno, Penn State pres. axed

Penn State University's governing body ousted legendary coach Joe Paterno last night along with university President Graham Spanier, ending Paterno's 46-year reign as head coach.

"It was not an easy decision," board of trustees Vice Chairman John Surma said last night shortly after 10 p.m. "In our view, things had reached a point that a change was necessary in the long interest of the university."

Riot police were dispatched to the university's main campus in State College, Pa., in anticipation of students' reaction to Paterno's ouster. For the last couple days, students publicly JoePa's firing comes after a day of growing criticism about the university's silence on the coach's future. Paterno said in a statement earlier in the day that he would stay on for the rest of the season, then retire.

Bad credit not good indicator

NEW YORK. A bad credit score is not linked to deviant behavior in the workplace, according to a new study set to be published in the Journal of Applied Psychology.

According to researchers at Louisiana State University who conducted the study, eliminating an individual from job contention based on negative credit information is unnecessary because it doesn't indicate the applicant will steal or engage in other bad behavior at work. MAINSTREET.COM

Murphy exits Oscars after producer's slur

- Brett Ratner resigns from show following gay insult
- He's the one who convinced Murphy to participate

Comedian Eddie Murphy bowed out yesterday as host of the upcoming Oscars, one day after producer Brett Ratner who had lured Murphy into the role also exited following an uproar from his use of a gay slur.

"I appreciate how Eddie feels about losing his creative partner, Brett Ratner, and we all wish him well," Tom Sherak, president of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, which puts on the Oscars, said in a statement.

On Tuesday, Ratner resigned from the high-profile job as Oscar producer in the face of an industry firestorm after his answer to a question at a screening this past weekend of his new comedy, "Tower Heist," which Murphy stars in.

Ratner was asked about using rehearsals ahead of the film shoot, and he replied "rehearsing is for fags." He later apologized publicly, but gay rights groups and some members of the academy took issue with his use of the slur.

"First and foremost, I want to say that I completely understand and support each party's decision with regard to a change of producers for this year's Academy Awards ceremony," Murphy said in a statement.

"I was truly looking forward to being a part of the show that our production team and writers were just starting to develop, but I'm sure that the new production team and host will do an equally great job," Murphy said. REUTERS

In US, seriously ill struggle to get help

► Chronically sick Americans lag behind in access to and payment of health care ► We spend more, though

Americans who have a chronic illness or serious health problems are more likely to struggle to pay their medical bills or have problems getting needed care than adults with similar problems in other high-income countries, a survey released yesterday found.

The poll of more than 18,000 adults in the United States and 10 other high-income countries found that Americans were most likely to have problems getting needed care because of the cost, or to have medical debt, according to data released by the Commonwealth Fund.

"Despite spending far more on health care than any other country, the United States practically stands alone when it comes to people with illness or chronic conditions having difficulty affording health care and paying medical bills," Commonwealth Fund president Karen Davis said in a statement.

"This is a clear indication of the urgent need for Affordable Care Act reforms geared toward improving coverage and controlling health care costs."

The 2011 telephone survey included people who said they were in fair or poor health, those who had surgery in the prior two years, or those who had been treated for a serious illness or injury in the prior year. It found that 42 percent of the 1,200 U.S. adults with health problems in the survey went without care because of costs. REUTERS

Salt study: It's not all bad

Reducing salt in the diets of the general population may not have an overall positive health impact, according to a review of more than 160 scientific studies published yesterday. The review found that while cutting down on salt reduced blood pressure in people with normal or high blood pressure, it also caused increases in some compounds that can adversely affect people's heart health. REUTERS

Wal-Mart: We're not trying for health care

ARKANSAS. Wal-Mart Stores erroneously portrayed its ambitions as a health care provider in a document sent to potential vendors recently, leading to the mistaken impression that the world's largest retailer wanted to become a national primary care provider, according to a statement from the corporation.

The document says that Wal-Mart sought to become "the largest provider of primary health care services in the nation."

The retailer yesterday said that formal document sent to vendors, known as a "request for information," was "overwritten and incorrect."

"We are not building a national, integrated, low-cost primary care health care platform," a Wal-Mart doctor said. REUTERS

The feed ...

► Checking in with some of Hollywood's biggest names to see what they've been up to — in their own words, in 140 characters or fewer.

Today, Justin Bieber is looking ahead, Nathan Fillion is a man on a mission, Mindy Kaling is heading to the movies and Seth MacFarlane isn't convinced.

► @justinbieber so this past week and even today every rumor and lie about me possible has been coming out in the press. Just need to ignore it.

► @NathanFillion I am determined to find out what @jim-myyfallon smells like. A few guesses: Cotton Candy Old Spice Old cotton candy, spiced.

► @mindykaling I think I'm excited for Jack & Jill because it seems like one of those movie parody trailers from Tropic Thunder ► @SethMacFarlane I can't buy the Superfriends. The "super" part is believable, but no way they're genuinely friends.

Talking points

We already knew this, Arquette

Though they've yet to file for divorce more than a year after separating, David Arquette says his marriage to Courteney Cox is definitely over. When pressed by Howard Stern during a radio interview if he would break up with new girlfriend Christina McLarty and move back in with Cox if she asked, Arquette gave a simple "no." And while Stern has previously gotten plenty of information out of Arquette, the recent "Dancing with the Stars" contestant is looking to stay more tightlipped going forward: "I'm trying to keep my personal life personal," he says. "It's very hard for me because I'm a very honest person."

Town is warned about Harry

Prince Harry has moved on to Gila Bend, Ariz., for the final leg of his helicopter training in the U.S. — and his reputation has apparently preceded him. "We have some very pretty girls here," Gila Bend Mayor Ron Henry tells the Daily Mail. "Some of the dads won't take too kindly to a prince fornicating the night away and drinking into the small hours. It is a very quiet town with a lot of good Christian people. This isn't a party town." And yes, he said "fornicating."

Move over, Bertinelli

Jenny Craig attracts, let's say, "midlevel" celebs to be their spokespeople. Sara Rue, Valerie Bertinelli, Phylicia Rashad and Jason Alexander are among those who have been paid handsomely to shill the company. But they must have paid buckets of cash to afford their latest spokeswoman, Mariah Carey.

The company's big celeb get was revealed yesterday at New York City's Four Seasons. Carey arrived 20 minutes late to the conference and was escorted all the way to the stage to what we thought would be to take questions from reporters, which is why we were there. Instead, she was just interviewed by Gayle King about her involvement with Jenny Craig, which, by the way, is now just called "Jenny."

Carey says she started Jenny in July and has lost 30 pounds so far. She told King she was approached by three different weight loss companies while pregnant but picked Jenny because she clicked with the people. "Some other suitors have great money, have great ... whatever it is that their concepts are — I didn't really connect with the people, and this was only over the phone at first. The first time I spoke

"Like all day every day when I was pregnant, [I was] in the bath, with a towel, seriously, doing business calls, talking to lawyers with water splashing."

with the executors at Jenny it was like we really clicked."

But Carey didn't discuss the diet exclusively: We also learned little personal tidbits about her, like the fact that she enjoys taking business calls while in the bath-

tub. "Like all day every day when I was pregnant, [I was] in the bath, with a towel, seriously, doing business calls, talking to lawyers with water splashing," she revealed. "[My trainer] Bernardo and I were doing exercises mainly in the water." As she demo'd some of her aquatic moves, she made sure to look good in the process: "Let me do it a more elegantly for the photo — please don't get a bad angle."

Carey says that she was so embarrassed by her pregnant body that she never went naked. Anywhere. "I was never nude. I had a towel on in the tub, I had clothing on in the tub," she told King. "I'm not lying. You think I would let Nick see me looking rancid like that?" Rancid? One thing's for sure: Mariah Carey will not become the spokesman for Earth Mothers International anytime soon.

—With additional reporting by Meredith Engel

Mariah Carey poses with Jenny Craig CEO Dana Fiser at a press conference yesterday at the Four Seasons Hotel New York to announce that she is the new Jenny Craig brand ambassador.

Also ...

Here are some more highlights from yesterday's press conference:

- Mariah doesn't own a scale, and the last time she weighed herself was when her single "My All" was out.
- Her twins have a website, www.dembabies.com.
- She bought an ultrasound machine during her pregnancy.
- The conference room was decked out with mood lighting, a white fur rug and white leather chairs.
- She has a penchant for using the word "dahhling."
- She actually does the two-cheek air-kiss. Really! Like you would expect any less.

► Indie rock, classic '60s soul and sweaty energy meet up in Tantrums ► More fans are 'Pickin' Up the Pieces'

Everything about Michael Fitzpatrick is befitting of a man who fronts a band called Fitz and the Tantrums. In performance, he's a dancing machine, and in conversation he's quick with a quip and prone to emotional reactions.

band," he says when the topic arises of other contemporary soul-influenced acts like Mayer Hawthorne, Sharon Jones and the Dap-Kings and Eli "Paperboy" Reed. Fitzpatrick has only kind words for his peers — and he's keen to point out that within the genre, "everyone's doing their own thing." As far as Fitz and the Tantrums are concerned, that's certainly true.

"We don't adhere to the form as rigidly as some of these other artists do, and I love their music. That's just not what we wanted to do," he says. "We wanted to do something that was more of a hybrid. We just weren't afraid to let something that felt like it was outside of the we started moving around, because the music was making us dance," says Fitzpatrick about the live performance. "And very early on, Noelle and I started to push each other. And now it's to the point where she and I just do not stand still for one heartbeat. And when you're in a hot, sweaty little dance club, I soak my suit through every single night. And we need to have towels at every single one of our shows. ... [Or else] I'm dying. I'm blinded by my own sweat, and it's dripping all over me. We burn a lot of calories every night."

Tender tantrums

What's immediately apparent from Fitz and the Tantrums' 2010 debut, "Pickin' Up the Pieces," is kinetic energy. Instruments interlock without intruding upon each other, and Fitzpatrick and co-singer Noelle Scaggs both constantly move in the center of it all. He dresses like Don Draper and sings like an angrier Daryl Hall, and she has the style and harmonic capabilities of all of the Supremes in one.

5 Reasons to go to the movies this weekend

Must-see

► Daniel Sharman plays the god Ares in "Immortals."

1 'Immortals' Critics have been buzzing that Tarsem Singh, the director of "The Cell" who is also behind one of the two new Snow White remakes, has a fun hit on his hands with this tale of a man (Henry Cavill) chosen by Zeus to fight against King Hyperion in his quest to find the ultimate weapon of mass destruction.

2 'J. Edgar' Though Clint Eastwood's latest effort may not shine like some of his previous films, this biopic about the first head of the FBI is fascinating — if only for the way it makes Leo DiCaprio look fat and decrepit.

3 'Jack and Jill' Isn't it just the pinnacle of a comic actor's career when they get to play multiple lead characters? Just ask Eddie Murphy how

"Norbit" went down. In this film, Adam Sandler plays a man faced with some unwanted quality time with his annoying twin sister.

4 'Tower Heist' The East Coast answer to "Ocean's 11" stars Ben Stiller as an apartment building manager who assembles a group of fellow disgruntled employees to steal back the pension money that a rich tenant (Alan Alda) squandered in a Madoff-esque scam.

5 'A Very Harold & Kumar 3D Christmas' Our favorite modern-day Cheech and Chong are back six years after crashing Guantanamo Bay for a very stoney Christmas adventure. Prepare to dodge eggs, hats, fingers and traffic cones in what is probably the only comedy to make the most of its 3-D effects. METRO

Video games and dancing go together like chocolate and anchovies, yet games that make us do the truffle shuffle in front of family and friends have been selling like gangbusters. Titles like "Just Dance" and "Dance Central" perch atop the sales charts like well-choreographed pigeons. Here are two more — "Dance Central 2" for the Xbox 360 Kinect and "Everybody Dance" for PS3 Move — vying to cut a rug into our wallets.

'Dance Central 2'

Console: Xbox 360 Kinect

Grade: **★★★★

The game that managed to outpace Wii Sports in the "your co-worker that hates video games inexplicably loves this" contest is back for a second helping. Thanks to the magical elves lurking in the Kinect, this sequel follows where the first title left off. Specifically, the way you dance in real life is the way you dance on your TV. See? Magic.

This would be a lowly tech demo if there wasn't a good game to back it up. Thankfully, there is. "Dance Central 2" ups the ante with more songs, more challenges and, finally, simultaneous multiplayer support. Now you can settle that age-old dispute between friends as to who would fare best in a dance battle. Hey, whatever floats your boat.

'Everybody Dance'

Console: PS3 Move

Sony

Grade: **★★★★

It's about time Sony and their Wii-esque wand attachment got a great dancing game. The device is called the Move, after all. "Everybody Dance" uses the power of the PlayStation Eye in tandem with the controller to create something that is close to the level of full body motion control seen in "Dance Central."

It's still fun though. This game brings some cool bells and whistles to the table. Each track features several difficulty levels and comes equipped with the official music video. There's also a mode that allows you to partner with friends in coordinated routines. If you're gonna get hammered at home, you could do worse than Sony's new dancing baby.

Mixed bag on Occupiers

RE: "NO REASON TO COMPLAIN, OWS": Want to know why the Occupy Wall Street movement exists? According to the Congressional Budget Office, from 1979 to 2007, average household income for the nation's top 1 percent more than tripled while middle-class incomes grew by less than 40 percent. E. LOPEZ, VIA E-MAIL

Mr. Golfman either hasn't had to job hunt in the last decade, or he's being paid to write this drivel. Perhaps he could point to where these "decent paying jobs" are. That would be more persuasive than the hollow claim of the USA still being "the land of opportunity."

JOSEPH CONNELL, BROWNSVILLE

These so-called "fighters for rights" are just plain occupants — disturbing working people, urinating in small eateries and ugly in everything they are doing. No wonder nobody wants to hire them. ELENA BRIO, VIA E-MAIL

How to read religion poll

RE: "RELIGION IMPORTANT TO VOTERS, POLL FINDS": This report said 29 percent of Americans would be uncomfortable with an evangelical Christian as president; but what this means is that most Americans want is an evangelical as president. The story uses words to twist the obvious. JOHN HEMPHILL, VIA E-MAIL

Doctor wasn't being careful

RE: "MJ: THE CULT OF IRRESPONSIBILITY": I am tired of everybody talking about the guilty hearing of Dr. Conrad Murray for Michael Jackson's death as if it was MJ's fault. MJ's drug use was not on trial here; the doctor's competency was. Knowing his client's dependence on drugs, he should not have continued with any treatments until MJ agreed to round-the-clock nurses.

NYA WILLIAMS, VIA E-MAIL

Why is Romney the GOP star?

RE: "NEW CAIN SLOGAN: NEIN, NEIN, NEIN!": Though it's valid to follow through the accusations of sexual harassment that will inevitably bury Cain, we're allowing Romney a free pass to regroup and recover uncontested. Let's have some discussion about how a flip-flopping, big government career politician and millionaire CEO is trying yet again to buy the Republican nomination. GLENN KORNEGAY, BRONX

Horoscope

♏ Scorpio Oct. 24-Nov. 22. Being domineering can lead to complications with those who share your day. It can be particularly destructive if you encounter someone who is a trifle more forceful than you.

♐ Sagittarius Nov. 23-Dec. 21. Even if it causes you some major inconvenience, don't let down those who are depending upon you. Meet your obligations like a responsible person.

♑ Capricorn Dec. 22-Jan. 19. Don't coerce a friend to agree with you when you know that she or he isn't in accord with your thinking. It does nothing but cause your pal to resent being put in that position.

♒ Aquarius Jan. 20-Feb. 19. An important goal can be achievable when you get past all your doubt and inadequacy. If you want to win, you must think in terms of victory. Otherwise failure takes over.

♓ Pisces Feb. 20-March 20. If experience has taught you that a certain topic agitates a friend, stay off of it or refuse to engage if another brings it up. Failing to do so could cause a nasty dust-up.

♈ Aries March 21-April 19. Be on your toes, because someone who knows how to manipulate your generous nature could hijack your finances.

♉ Taurus April 20-May 20. If you can't avoid dealing with someone who has a faculty for getting under your skin, be as tactful as you can. When this person makes a nasty comment, consider the source.

♊ Gemini May 21-June 20. It's going to just be one of those days when neglected duties or commitments are likely to catch up with you. When numerous things clamor for your attention, take it in stride.

♋ Cancer June 21-July 22. Even if the position you take is an unpopular one, don't let your peers pressure you into doing something that goes against your better judgment.

♌ Leo July 23-Aug. 22. Keep a cool head when things go awry at home, and encourage other family members to do the same. Unpleasant events can get worse.

♍ Virgo Aug. 23-Sept. 22. Don't allow yourself to blow up over something that you've handled with tolerance up until now. Continue to keep a cool head and encourage others to lose their noggins as well.

♎ Libra Sept. 23-Oct. 23. People are a bit touchy, making any commercial dealings a bit trickier than usual. If you're involved with someone who is having a hard time keeping cool, help him or her by smiling copiously. BERNICE BEDE OSOL

"I need to buy your jewelry for my retail store and for my customers worldwide."
M. Durst* — Costume Jewelry Specialist

WE ARE CONFIDENT OUR BUYERS WILL BEAT MOST LEGITIMATE OFFERS!

How to Test Us

Take your valuable items to other dealers before bringing them to us. Have them give you legitimate written offers. Then bring your items and your written offers to us. No one can guarantee to pay the highest prices all the time. But we believe the buyers we have chosen will beat most legitimate written offers.

Why Are We Telling You To Get Prices From Others?

Our buyers find it much easier to buy items of value from their customers after they have had previous offers. So it is in our own self interest to have you get written offers before coming to us. We also find that our customers are happier because they have the peace of mind knowing they received a fair price.

Why Our Buyers May Be Able To Pay More

Our group of buyers will be here for only a few days. But in those few days, some of our buyers will buy more than many dealers buy in a year. Because of the volume of merchandise they handle, some of our buyers have developed world-wide markets and clients to liquidate their purchases at the best prices, which is one of the keys to why they can pay more than other dealers.

What Makes Us Different?

Most dealers who buy and sell items of value specialize in only a few areas. As a result, they are likely to make low offers for items in markets they are not familiar with.

For example, almost all jewelers specialize in new items. They do not often deal with old or used watches, which means they are unfamiliar with the true markets for such items. So if you have a used watch to sell, chances are a jeweler will make an offer on the low side because he does not want to make a mistake and pay too much.

The same thing applies to almost all items of value, such as lady items, art, jewelry, etc., that you bring to normal dealers.

Anderson, Carter, Bascom & Assoc., and Estate Buyer by MUD is different. Our volume buying has allowed us to bring together a large group of knowledgeable buyers. And although we do not control what our buyers pay, we believe they are comfortable paying prices that beat legitimate written offers from other dealers.

"Up To" Prices

IMPORTANT: All prices are based on rarity & condition. If an item is in poor condition, its value will be low. If an item is very rare, and in superb condition, it might be worth more than the "up to" prices listed. For example, a 1919 10¢ could be worth $1,400 in very high-quality condition or less than $1 in poor condition. In most cases, the "up to" prices listed in this advertisement are for items of exceptional rarity and quality. Chances are, you will not have those items. But we are willing to take the time to look at your items, just in case free of charge and give you our opinion.

IMPORTANT ECONOMIC INFORMATION

During the past few years, low interest rates, war, and an uncertain stock market combined to push prices of gold, silver, and many collectibles to their highest levels in 25 years. We have studied the investment and collectibles markets for decades, and in the past during times of economic uncertainty (which is happening now), there have been dramatic price declines in many areas of the jewelry, coin, and collectible markets. Which is why this may be the best time in decades for you to sell for some of the highest prices ever

"I have 1,400 customers worldwide who need your coins."

— J.L. Furr* - Coin Specialist

"I ran my first retail ad in COIN WORLD in 1968. And I have been a full-time coin dealer for 36 years. Today, I have a worldwide list of more than 1,400 active buyers. I travel extensively, looking for coins for my collectors. And we buy everything. We need common coins that are worth less than $1. And I love to buy expensive coins. I have customers willing to pay $100,000 or more for the right coins."

We have 25+ expert coin buyers on hand, most with 20-30 years experience. They will be happy to evaluate your coins. And, as a group, we hope to spend $1,000,000 or more while we are here.

Will travel anywhere to look at large coin collections!

R you ready for some OYSTERS?

► Folklore says that oysters should be eaten only in months with letter R's in them — and right now we're hitting our stride ► Where to eat the best bivalves in New York

Join the club

'Show Me'

by Jessica Sutta

When Gaga first came on the scene, she received a lot of criticism for being derivative. It seems that with Jessica Sutta's "Show Me," we have our first real example of a song that is derivative of pop's leading Lady. Listen to the robotic way Sutta delivers the line, "bow, bow, have you ever thought about" and it's almost in the exact same cadence as the "walk, walk fashion baby" part of "Bad Romance." These complaints are not to suggest that Sutta, a former Pussycat Doll, won't eventually find her own identity. "Show Me" is a fine song. The melody is strong, and the thumping beat has helped it hover at the top of the Billboard dance chart for a few weeks. And the lyrics are interesting: In a pop song, historically the most empty of all expressions, the singer is pleading for you to reveal "everything hidden in your heart, all your fears."

● PAT HEALY

Now that we've officially started the third month of the letter R streak, the time is ripe for a self-guided tour of New York's oyster bars. True, the old saying holds little sway today (oysters are just as safe to eat in May, June, July and August as they are in any month with an R in its name), but don't let that stop you from overindulging this month.

‘How to Make It’ in NYC

► Lake Bell stars in “How to Make It in America,” airing Sundays at 10:30 p.m. on HBO.

Every week we’re checking in with the hustlers from HBO comedy “How to Make It in America” for recommendations on top spots in NYC to see and be seen. Today’s tip comes from Lake Bell, who plays Rachel, Ben’s on-and-off ex-girlfriend — aka a distraction from his budding fashion line, CRISP.

Marlow & Sons

Neighborhood: Williamsburg

The scene: All style, all substance

What goes down: It makes the concept of a family-owned business relevant and cool.

Why it’s a place to help you

► Marlow & Sons is located at 81 Broadway in Brooklyn (718-384-1441, www.marlowandsons.com).

Tuaca chills out

► Every week, we crack open a new bottle
► This time, we took its temperature

Shelf life

What we're drinking: Tuaca, a vanilla-citrus liqueur that's now on shelves in a high-tech new bottle designed by tattoo artist Corey Miller. His design is printed in "thermochromatic" ink — a fancy word that just means it changes color with the temperature. Avoid trying to name-check this one too

Cocktail recipe

The Tuaca Ginger-Lime

What's in it:

- 1.5 oz. chilled Tuaca
- 2 oz. ginger ale
- 2 lime wedges

How to make it:

Pour Tuaca in a lowball glass over ice. Fill with ginger ale. Squeeze lime in, and mix.

late into the night.

What it tastes like: Christmas with the cool side of your family. Italian brandies are blended with Madagascar vanilla and Mediterranean citrus fruits for a warm, smooth sip.

Drink it like this: Straight up and chilled (aka when the bottle turns blue).

Mix it with: Tuaca's pretty versatile, and is right at home in fruity cocktails where you might usually add vodka (think pineapple and cranberry juice), lending a little hint of autumn. Or go all out and use it to spike warm apple cider for a seriously cuddly cocktail.

SAUL BASS: A LIFE IN FILM & DESIGN

PROUDLY PRESENTED BY THE ACADEMY OF MOTION PICTURE
ARTS AND SCIENCES AND THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

7 p.m.
Monday, Nov. 14

Saul Bass (1920-1996) is internationally celebrated as one of the greatest designers of the 20th century. He created some of the most compelling images of postwar visual culture, often in collaboration with his wife Elaine, and permanently transformed the worlds of corporate identity and graphic design. Bass is also widely known for his design work in film, particularly his iconic title sequences.

The Academy and MoMA will premiere a new restoration of Saul and Elaine Bass's Oscar®-winning short film Why Man Creates (1968).

0% FREE Financing for 5 years!¹

Plus Limited Time FREE upgrade to energy-efficient SmartSun™ Glass¹

Replacement windows are in the budget this year.

In our current economy, some folks have put off replacing their windows, but with 0% FREE financing for five years, you can't afford to put it off any longer. There isn't a bank around where you can borrow money without paying interest, but that's exactly what we're offering. Get the replacement windows every homeowner wants, while keeping more of your money in your pocket.

With installers this skilled, we even warranty your installation[†].

Most companies will warranty their windows—but with a few unpredictable workers—they won't warranty their installations. Renewal by Andersen Master Installers only come to your home after they've been trained, tested and trusted. With teams that average 10+ years of window installation experience, most installations—including the cleanup—are completed in just one day.

For a strong window that will last, look to the company that has lasted.

Renewal by Andersen is the exclusive start-to-finish replacement window subsidiary of Andersen Windows—a company with a 108 year reputation for quality. Our replacement windows are held to Andersen's same high standard, while some other, less reliable windows have been reported to leak and fail after just a few years.

Manhattan's own country club

► A new bar above Bowlmor on University Place promises links and libations ► What to check out

There are many reasons to think Manhattan would never have a country club. Nonetheless, the Greenwich Village Country Club is now here, having turned the massive space above Bowlmor (which was the former carnival-themed bar Carnival) into a Shangri-La of links and libations. Your first look:

Par-Tee Lounge: Step inside and you'll hit an AstroTurf area sporting pool/air hockey/shuffleboard tables, an upside-down alligator-skin golf hole on the ceiling, and beers ranging from drafts of Goose Island IPA, to cans of Foster's and Porkslap served in paper bags.

The Mini-Golf Course and Fairway: Most of the considerable square footage is consumed by a large sand bocce court, a beer pong arena, and the aforementioned fenced-in minigolf course, whose nine holes are guarded by animals, from a giraffe, to a lion, to ... holy crap, is that John Daly?! Sorry, false alarm, it's just a gorilla. A massive, shirtless gorilla.

The Clubhouse: Should you want to run game yourself, this sequestered, bottle service-pushing lounge/club features a topiary-lined entrance, and a dance floor surrounded by curved banquettes and plaid couches rocking AstroTurf accents.

Wine & dine with Christina Tosi

Pastry chef Christina Tosi is the culinary mad scientist behind such genius confections as cornflake-chocolate-chip-marshmallow cookies, pretzel ice cream pie and cereal milk at Momofuku Milk Bar (all of which you can now re-create in your own kitchen with recipes from her new book, "Momofuku Milk Bar"). We caught up with the 30-year-old Brooklyn resident to find out where she eats when she's not inhaling sugar.

Brunch

I love going to Egg in Williamsburg (135 N. Fifth St., Brooklyn, 718-302-5151), except it's always busy. When I was a pastry chef at WD-50 I'd always go to Prune (54 E. First St., 212-677-6221) on Sundays. I love their Monte Cristo or Eggs Benedict. And [because of] The Brooklyn Star (593 Lorimer St., Brooklyn, 718-599-9899) I dream of weekends most days, only because I want biscuits and gravy every morning for the rest of my life.

Sandwiches

I like Tiny's Giant Sandwich

► Try to catch Tosi at one of Milk Bar's four locations (www.momofuku.com).

In with the old

"This fall we're doing a big Milk Bar throwback. We're bringing back our favorites from November to February: items like our cinnamon bun pie, our chocolate chocolate cookies and soft serves such as red velvet cake, Sour Patch Kids and Fruity Cereal Milk."

Shop (129 Rivington St., 212-228-4919) and I'm a really big fan of this bodega Sunny and Annie's (94 Ave. B.; 212-677-3131). My two favorite sandwiches are the Chicago — it's like a Reuben — and this other one which is their take on bulgogi.

Pizza

I used to have Motorino (349 E. 12th St., 212-777-2644) in my neighborhood and then it closed down. I really like Roberta's (261 Moore St., Brooklyn, 718-417-1118) but you have to eat it there. I'm also pretty shameless — if it's 2 o'clock in the morning and I'm just getting home from work I'll order

Papa John's (www.papa-johns.com) and not think twice about it. They have a lot of sugar in their crust — it fulfills my need for dinner and dessert.

Noodles

When I want to have a really delicious meal I always go to Noodle Bar (171 First Ave., 212-777-7773). It seems so self-promotional, but I don't get anything [out of it]. It's also the way I really enjoy dining: it's delicious and the food comes out just fast enough and it's something about the flavors they use. I also go to Ippudo (65 Fourth Ave., 212-388-0088) which is a more classic approach to a ramen shop. I think there's something really soothing about a bowl of noodles, especially the more you know about it.

Drinks

In the city I love going to PDT (113 St. Marks Place, 212-614-0386). The fact that I can have a cocktail and a corn-dog is a great thing. In Brooklyn we go to Five Leaves (18 Bedford Ave., 212-383-5345).

► Brady had three turnovers against the Giants.

PATRIOTS VS. JETS

Jets 'D' wary of struggling Patriots

With Peyton Manning out for the season with a neck injury, Jets head coach Rex Ryan called the Patriots Tom Brady the best quarterback in the league. But as good as Brady is, he's still having a down year.

Over the past three games — two of them New England losses — Brady has thrown four interceptions and been sacked eight times.

New York is smelling blood and the target they're circling is Brady.

"They spread you out; they're real disciplined," Jets cornerback Kyle Wilson said. "When a guy's not doing their job, that's exactly where they're going to hit. We got to understand matchups, because that's a big aspect of the game for New England."

There is frustration in Foxboro as they try to pinpoint why Brady is tossing so many more interceptions. Last season, he was picked off just four times. This year, that number is already at 10.

"I think you can look at each play and obviously there's something that went wrong. A couple balls have been tipped, a couple balls I'm sure he'd like to have back. I'd say for the most part, I think he's throwing to the right guy,"

Patriots head coach Bill Belichick said.

"The first time up there, we didn't play some things — technique — as well as we should have," Wilson said. KRISTIAN DYER

Niners ready to Gore Giants

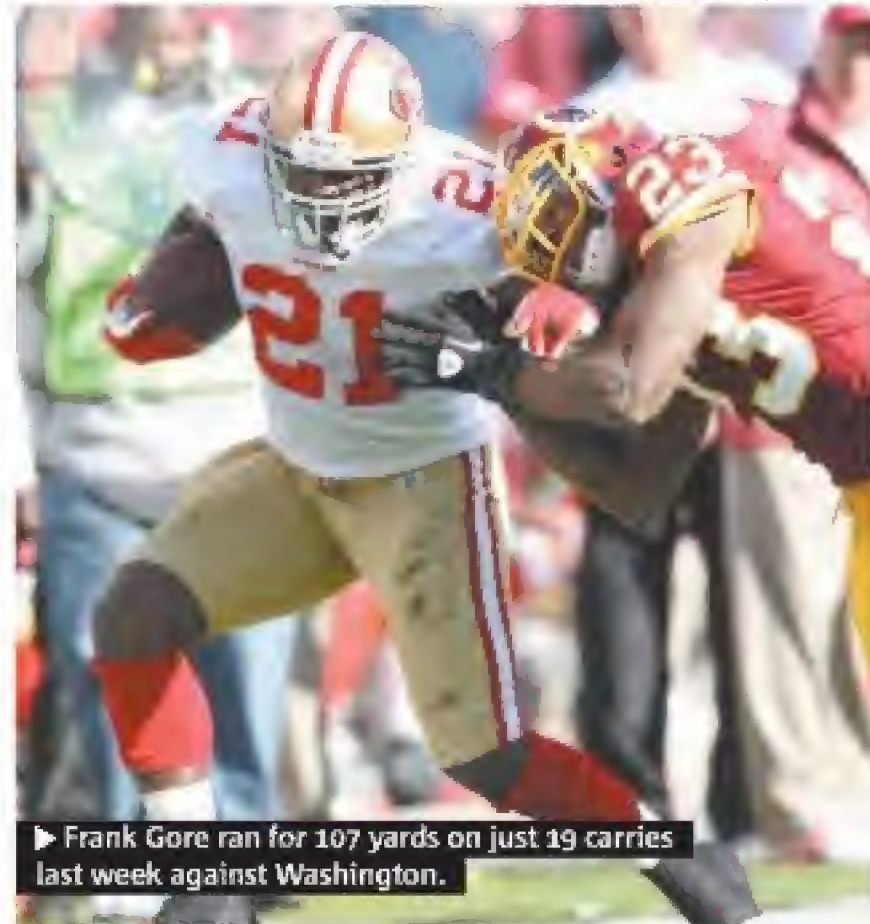

► San Fran running back on historic streak ► Leaky New York line better prepare ► Harbaugh leans on run

The Giants are coming off an impressive road win against the Patriots, but this Sunday's matchup with the upstart 49ers may actually be the tougher challenge.

Sure, the Patriots have all-world quarterback Tom Brady, but what San Francisco brings may be more detrimental to Big Blue's defense — a power running game.

Frank Gore is perhaps the most talented of the Niners' skill position players and the offense has been molded around him. The seven-year vet has gashed opponents this season and has rewarded rookie head coach Jim Harbaugh's faith with a superb season (782 yards, 4.9 yards per carry and five touchdowns).

"You know they're going run. Gore has [a franchise-record] five-straight games with 100 yards and they have good receivers and a tight end who's very rare," Coughlin said. "Plus, they have three first-rounders on the offensive line ... they have good talent."

► Frank Gore ran for 107 yards on just 19 carries last week against Washington.

Coughlin's concerns for stopping Gore are well-founded — the Giants are allowing 127.1 yards a game and 4.6 yards per rushing attempt.

MIDSEASON AWARD TOUR

Fantasy sports

ADAM LEVITAN

ALEVITAN@METRO.US

Break out the stilettos; it's time to hit the red carpet. With each team having played at least eight games, we can take a gander back at what we've seen.

Everyone knows that Fred Jackson is fantasy's MVP, Chris Johnson is the biggest bust and Cam Newton is the rookie of the year. But what about these categories:

Injury of the year

It's unlikely that owners were able to overcome Jamaal Charles's season-ending Week 2 ACL tear. He had no clear handcuff and getting running back help during the season is brutal. While Kenny Britt's knee injury was painful, there are enough wide-outs out there to overcome it.

Best performance

In Week 4 against the Broncos, Aaron Rodgers piled up more fantasy points than Vernon Davis or Mario Manningham have all season. He threw for 408 yards, ran for 36 more and scored six total touchdowns.

Top waiver add

Victor Cruz wasn't drafted coming out of UMass. He also wasn't drafted in any fantasy leagues. But he has bucked the odds, establishing himself as a highly-productive No. 3 receiver and outscoring guys like Larry Fitzgerald and Brandon Marshall along the way.

Aaron Rodgers is on pace to score 52 total touchdowns this season.

NFL handcuffs

Depth isn't as important as handcuffs now that the bye weeks are gone. Some must-owns:

1 Ben Tate, RB, HOU

— If Arian Foster went down, Tate would be a top-5 kind of option. The Texans' offensive line is dominant.

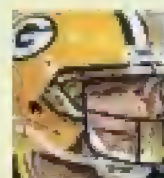

2 Kendall Hunter, RB, SF

— This run-heavy offense is a back's dream. Frank Gore has an ankle tweak now.

3 Matt Flynn, QB, GB

— Owners can't risk losing Aaron Rodgers. Flynn would be a top-10 option if given the chance for the Pack.

NFL news

Brown bag

► Antonio Brown has racked up 34 targets in his last three games. And with Emmanuel Sanders (knee) out 2-3 weeks, he'll sustain that. Brown is a big-time playmaker in what is now a pass-first offense. Don't be afraid to ride him.

Top NFL pickups

Roy Helu

► RB, Redskins
Locked in as the every-down back in an offense that loves to check down to its backs. Major PPR upside.

Laurent Robinson

► WR, Cowboys
With Miles Austin out 2-4 weeks, Robinson is going to be a target hog. In this offense, he'll have WR2 value.

Jacoby Ford

► WR, Raiders
Ford has replaced Darrius Heyward-Bey as a starter. Has elite speed to catch up to bombs from Carson Palmer.

Cashman won't rush signings

Those expecting any significant Yankee transactions in the next few weeks can plan to be disappointed.

In between various charitable appearances, general manager Brian Cashman is getting a gauge for the free agent starting pitching market, led by C.J. Wilson and Yu Darvish.

Cashman made an appearance at the Hard Rock Cafe in Times Square for the New York Cares winter coat drive yesterday and Saturday he will be in Vermont for a fundraiser for farmers impacted by Hurricane Irene. Then he will head to the GM meetings in Milwaukee Monday.

The Yankees have not finished initial calls to agents or other GMs.

"I haven't talked to every team and I haven't talked to every agent yet," Cashman said. "I certainly haven't had one agent tell me what they want financially. No one's made any demands to me. No one's made me an offer, so I don't know what these current free agents are looking for yet in terms of years or dollars, and I certainly don't have every team covered yet (for trade analysis) — although I certainly am trying." — LARRY FLEISHER

Yanks' Posada says no chance he's back

► Posada is undecided if he will return to baseball.

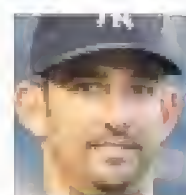

► Yankees catcher says he will not be back in pinstripes ► Will take offseason to decide whether he will retire ► Has received other MLB offers

The core four is now the core two.

Yankees catcher and designated hitter Jorge Posada stated at his foundation dinner last night that there was no chance he would be back as a Yankee next season. And the decision now was whether he wanted to sign with another team or retire.

"I don't think there's not even a percentage of chance that I can come back," Posada said at the dinner.

Posada also said his agent

"The New York Yankees for me is my second family."

CATCHER JORGE POSADA, NEW YORK YANKEES

has received multiple offers from other clubs, though he did not elaborate on which.

17 Jorge Posada spent 17 seasons in the Bronx playing for the Yankees — every year of his major league career.

Posada came up with the Yankees in 1995 and 1996, playing briefly, before playing 60 games in 1997. He took over full-time from now Yankees manager Joe Girardi in 1998 when he played in 111 games and batted .268 with 17 home runs.

He would start at catcher for the next 11 seasons before moving to designated hitter this past season.

"I don't know if I want to play. I don't know if I want to stay home," Posada said. "I will always be a Yankee. The New York Yankees for me is my second family. It will be tough to put on another uniform for real and learn another set of rules and all that stuff."

HAIR LOSS?

Do you have scalp hair loss?

Are you a man between 18 and 49 or a woman between 18 and 59 with mild to moderate hair loss?

If yes, you may qualify for an investigational study for scalp hair loss.

If you are interested in finding out more information about the study please contact:

Feeling better, but not where you want to be?

No one chooses to have depression. But every day, people choose to do something about it. And for many, it means taking an antidepressant. But for some, this may not always be enough. Low mood and loss of interest are just a few of the common symptoms that can continue to stay with you - even while you're taking depression. If you're experiencing unresolved symptoms, it may be time to consider additional options.

The Depression Outreach Study is evaluating an investigational drug that's intended to be taken with your current antidepressant (SSRI), to see if it helps lessen any ongoing symptoms of depression. All eligible study participants will receive investigational study drugs, coverage for their current prescription antidepressant, and study-related care at no cost. If you are at least 18 years old, have been diagnosed with Major Depressive Disorder (MDD), and are taking an antidepressant, you may be eligible to participate. TO LEARN MORE CONTACT US:
